SHAWNEE STUDENT BULLETIN

FILM OF THE WEEK

"The Fortune"

The film for this week is "The Fortune" with Jack Nicholson, Warren Beatty, and Stockard Channing.

Set in the 1920's, Beatty plays the slick mercenary who elopes with a wacky, gullible heiress. Since Beatty is already married, he cons a nutty embezzler (Nicholson) into marrying her. Their plan backfires when the heiress threatens to leave all of her money to charity. With this news, the two con-men set out to do away with the girl with little success. Hilarious!!!

STUDENT ACTIVITIES CENTER

The Student Activities Center is almost completed. You will be able to use the building beginning with the Spring Quarter for leisure time activities. In order to plan the activities on the days and times you want, we are asking that you complete the forms that are available in the cafeteria or at the switchboard in the Student Commons Building. Please take a minute to complete this form so that we can plan effectively.

STUDENT INFORMATION UPDATE

Please Excuse our Dust!

Because of construction delays, building occupancy has been postponed in some areas. The tentative date for the move to permanent offices is October 15. This date does not include the Activity Building (B Building). The Activity Building will probably not be completed for some months. When permanent offices are occupied, refer to the Student Handbook, pages 4 and 5, for office locations.

Class Changes--General Information

For assistance with class changes or help and information concerning any problem, contact a counselor in the following locations.

Tom Davidson	Business and Engineering Building "D" Building
Fred Chrisman	Allied Health Building "C" Building
Paul Crabtree	Massie Hall, First Floor, West End "M" Building
Arnold McCoy Richard Howard Gene Wilson	Massie Hall, Room 213 "M" Building

Student Activity Notes

With school just beginning there are plans for several mixers to be held in or around the patio or food service area of the Commons Building (A). As soon as construction allows, information will be posted concerning mixers. This will be an opportunity for you to meet fellow students and broaden horizens.

Ski Club

Tom Stead and Lyle Smith are starting plans for this year's Ski Club. The Ski Club had about 50 members last year and several trips were taken. Look for information to be posted on this in the coming weeks or consult Mr. Stead in the Art Department (Massie Hall) or Mr. Smith in the Business and Engineering Building (D).

Bowling

Bob Decker is at it again! Mr. Decker has arranged a bowling league again this year to be held at the South Shore Bowling Lanes. The league will be on Thursday nights beginning October 5. Interested students should contact Mr. Decker in the Business and Engineering Building (D). Arrangements will be made for students to get to the bowling alley.

Student Newspaper

Interested in working on the Student Newspaper? There will be a quarterly stipend for interested students. Contact Fred Chrisman in the Allied Health Building (C) if interested.

Student Senate

Shawnee State will activate the Student Senate this year if there are enough interested students. Information concerning the Student Senate is on page 22 of the Student Handbook. Interested students should contact Fred Chrisman in the Allied Health Building (C).
