THERE'S ONLY ONE IOMA

The man was introduced to us as a police officer who had become famous by making movies of his most demanding life. But after he came on the stage and began speaking to us, he lost his fame as a police officer and became a warm, caring human being mainly concerned with what was happening on the streets around us.

He told us about his life in which only a few men in this world could have possibly survived. He had a goal in his life and by the power of God, is now achieving major miracles with the problem, kids of today's society. This really is an amazing man.

MIME SHOW THIS WEEK

October 23, 1979 - The O.J. Anderson Mime Show will be presented at 8 p.m. in the Activities Center. Using simple props such as a black box and a bar stool, O.J. Anderson employs the traditional white make-up with black outlines on the edges of his face. He mimes everyday events and turns them into humorous or dramatic episodes. Anderson silently portrays the human experience with both insight and wit.

LETTER FROM DEBBIE

Students,

I would like to interest you in my column "How 'Bout That." In order to write this column, I need students to submit the things to write, and if you don't know what to write, just tell all the dumb things going on around campus or the dumb things your friends do or their birthdays, etc.

Example:

Is Liquid Gold a good deodorant? -- How about it, Terry?

Example:

Scrambled eggs, sunny-side up -- How about it, Susie?

All this is for entertainment to add to our paper, not hurt feelings, "it's all in fun."

Last year all the students griped because they wanted this type of column and now all we need is your help to make it a success.

Thanks,

Debbie

Tui Su, a Shawnee State student, lost his trailer and belongings to a fire just recently. Anyone who would want to help Ti with clothes or books, contact Mike Tabor from 3-11 p.m. in C or D Building.

32-32 Pants
Med - Shirt

Shawnee State art student, Mollie Crabtree, received a certificate from the U.S. Jaycees for her art work at the Haunted House at Gallia Street here in Portsmouth.

Congratulations, Mollie!!

Go visit the Haunted House. It will scare you to death!
