The Saturday November 15 performance at 12 noon, sponsored by McDonald's will be billed as a McDonald's Fun Theatre and the cost including a hamburger lunch will be $1.50.

For further information, contact Shawnee State Community College at 354-3205.

ATTENTION FINANCIAL AID STUDENTS !!!!!

There will be some changes in the financial aid process for the Winter Quarter. Your tuition and fees will be deducted from your total grant. If you have additional money remaining it will be possible for you to charge your books and supplies at the Shawnee State Bookstore up to the amount of money that would have been given to you in the form of a check. Any additional money that would be left after you have charged your books will be given to you in the form of a check on February 2, 1981. This will be explained to you during early registration.

I URGE YOU TO REGISTER ON NOVEMBER 11, 12, or 13 TO AVOID ANY DELAY IN THE PROCESSING OF YOUR FINANCIAL AID.

Ranger's Den

The lucky winner of the free lunch at the Grand Opening of the Ranger's Den was George Harris.

Mascot glasses are being sold at the Ranger's Den for $1.00 each.

The Grand Opening ceremony for the Ranger's Den was held on November 5. Alice Cochenour was presented a $20 gift certificate by Jim Dowdy, Manager of the Cardinal Portsmouth Service Center. Frank Taylor was presented an artist's sketch of the mascot by Keith Petersen.

The Ranger Burger will be available daily at the price of $1.50
